Cameron Communications Donates $5,000 to Sam Houston High School Football Team

Moss Bluff, LA –Cameron Communications donated $5,000 to the Sam Houston High School Football Team for their 2009 season. The Broncos officially began their season Sept. 4, although team members have been hard at work all summer!

Senior team members Perry Chatman, #22, Running Back for the Broncos, and Bronco Quarterback Orlan Lockhart, #7, were on hand for the check presentation, along with Sam Houston High School coach Russ Sutherland. The check was presented by George Mack, President of Cameron Communications, and Jason LeBlanc, Retail Manager of Cameron Communications' Moss Bluff market. Throughout the SHHS season, Cameron Communications will be right along side the team to cheer the Broncos all the way to victory.
