Louisiana Christian Rodeo and Cameron Communications: Roping, Riding and Rewarding!

Sulphur, LA – Dust off those cowboy boots and make sure your hat is on tight...the Louisiana Christian Rodeo is back in town! Featuring a variety of rodeo activities, the LCRP is a great time for all cowboys and cowgirls, no matter how old!

With barrel racing, calf roping, team events, bull riding and more, there's an exciting Saturday right around the corner at the West Cal Arena. To kick off the 2010-2011 rodeo season, the Louisiana Christian Rodeo kicked up the dust on Saturday, November 27. If you missed it, the rodeo will be back in action on December 18, and again for the finale on March 19.

Trina Johnson, Public Relations Coordinator for Cameron Communications, presented a donation of $800 to LCRP Rodeo Secretary Jinna Miller. Donations towards LCRP go towards awards funding for the winners of each class. Winners are also awarded points that go towards their overall scores—which will be used to determine overall winners when the March 19 rodeo is completed. The overall winners will win LCRP belt buckles.

Anyone needing more information on the rodeo can call the Rodeo office and talk with Jinna at 337-528-4950, or go online to www.lcrprodeo.com.

Cameron Communications is Southwest Louisiana's provider of Fiber technology, bringing Digital Cable, High-Speed Internet and Phone service to Calcasieu and Cameron Parishes. For more information on Cameron Communications' donations and sponsorship policies, please visit www.camtel.com/Newsroom.
