

CONTACT

Alexis Berthold
Marketing Assistant
(337) 583-8310

Date release distributed

January 15, 2010

Release date

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cameron Communications Makes Donation to Bronco Basketball

Moss Bluff, LA – Slam dunks sound a little sweeter at Sam Houston High School, thanks to Cameron Communications. Members of the Sam Houston Basketball team were on hand to accept a check for $1,400 from Jason LeBlanc, Retail Manager of Cameron Communications.

The Basketball team began their season in late 2009, and will continue through the early part of 2010. Accepting the check were team members Hunter Thornton, Aaron McFatter, Dylan Champagne and Quincy Chretien. Coach Keith Waddell was also present. For a complete Bronco basketball schedule, visit <http://samhouston.cpsb.org>.

Cameron Communications is Moss Bluff’s provider of Fiber technology, bringing Digital Cable, High-Speed Internet and Phone service to the area. For more information on Cameron Communications’ donations and sponsorship policies, please visit www.camtel.com/Newsroom.

###

PICTURE DESCRIPTION:

Cameron Communications Retail Manager Jason LeBlanc (Left), presents members of the SHHS Bronco Basketball Team (left-to-right) Hunter Thornton, Aaron McFatter, Dylan Champagne and Quincy Chretien and Coach Keith Waddell with a donation of $1400. The monies will go to supporting the team in the 2009-2010 season.