Sam Houston Football Team and Cameron Communications: A 2010 Touchdown Partnership!

Moss Bluff, LA –Cameron Communications donated $5,000 to the Sam Houston High School Football Team for their 2010 season. The Broncos officially began their season Sept. 3, with a season opening win in St. Martinsville, but the Big Sam football team has been hard at work all summer!

Senior team members Joe Groves, #89, Defensive Back for the Broncos, and Bronco Quarterback Evan Powell, #22, were on hand for the check presentation, along with Sam Houston High School coach Russ Sutherland. The check was presented by Jason LeBlanc, Retail Manager of Cameron Communications' Moss Bluff market. Throughout the SHHS season, Cameron Communications will be right along side the team to cheer the Broncos all the way to victory.

Said LeBlanc, "Football is Southwest Louisiana. The Sam Houston Broncos are a high-powered team that will go far this and every season, and we're proud to help carry on the tradition and sense of community that this team fosters."

This year, current customers of Cameron Communications can also catch reruns of the Sam Houston vs. Tioga and Sam Houston vs. St. Louis games on the community channel, Local 8, as they will be recorded live from the sidelines. Copies of these games will be available through His Feet Duplicating and Video Copy, 337-912-9678.
