St. Theresa Bon Ton Festival a “Good Time” with Cameron Communications

Carlyss, LA – The end of summer means many things—school starts again, the pools close and the weather cools. Another indicator that fall is beginning is that the St. Theresa Bon Ton Festival is here with the annual tradition of games, entertainment and fun for the whole family.

This year, the Bon Ton Festival will begin at 5 p.m. on Friday, September 17, and go through the weekend, ending at 4 p.m. on Sunday, September 19. The festival hours are Friday 5-10:30 p.m., Saturday from 10 a.m. – 10:30 p.m. and Sunday, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

This year, festival-goers can expect to find a live and silent auction, live entertainment, a 5K and kids fun run, the return of the Bon Ton Idol contest and more. This great festival has been a tradition of Carlyss for many years, and Cameron Communications is pleased to again be part of that tradition.

Cameron Communications has donated $800 towards this year’s festival. Father Thomas Vellappallil, Pastor of St. Theresa’s, and Lee Richard, festival Chairperson, received the donation from Public Relations Coordinator Trina Johnson. Says Johnson, “we love sponsoring events like the Bon Ton Festival. It’s a great time for families, friends and the community to come together and have fun. The music lineup is really exciting, and there are so many fun games and other activities planned; Mr. Richard and his committee have done a great job planning!”
